

PA Grand Canyon Hike & Bike (ages 14-18)

Did you know Pennsylvania has a Grand Canyon? While it is different than Arizona's, it has its own beauty and grandness. On this trip, participants will see it from 2 perspectives: they will hike down the West Rim Trail, spending 3 nights on the trail. At the bottom we will trade our packs for bikes and bike up the gorge on the gentle grade of the rail trail right along the river. This trip features many beautiful vistas, variety in travel, cooling swim spots along the river, and the satisfaction of the journey.

What to Bring

Because you are packing for a back country camping experience one very important concept is to avoid using cotton and denim clothing. Cotton becomes heavy, uncomfortable, and does not insulate when it is wet. Cotton should be particularly avoided in socks, shorts, underwear and outerwear. Look for material names like wicking, Quik-Dri, Merino Wool, Cool Max, Capilene, Therm-a-silk, Techwick, and Poly-pro.

Do not overspend for this trip. Most of the items are common and ones that you probably already have or, could easily borrow. Two bargain camping stores are Campmor: www.campmor.com and Sierra Trading Post: www.sierratradingpost.com. EMS, LL Bean, and REI are also great stores for outdoor clothing and gear but tend to be a bit more expensive.

Remember, please label all clothing & personal items so that lost items can be returned to you.

- 1 lightweight non-cotton sleeping bag in a stuff sack and pillow (preferably no more than 10" diameter when rolled)
- 1 nylon poncho or appropriate rain gear (avoid easily torn vinyl ponchos)
- 2 quart-sized water bottles for water storage (Nalgene style best)
- 2-4 T-shirts (at least 2 being quick-drying T-shirts)
- 2 pair quick-drying shorts (example: nylon soccer shorts)
- 2-3 pair quick-drying (non-cotton) underwear helps avoid rash and discomfort
- 1-2 modest swim suits
- Toiletries (toothbrush, deodorant, etc.)
- 1 wool sweater or fleece jacket (non-cotton insulating layer)
- 1 Pair of pants (NOT jeans or cotton sweats - windbreaker or fleece material)
- Hat with a brim
- Warm knit cap (for warmth should it get chilly)
- 1 long underwear top and bottom for cool nights (no cotton please)
- Hiking boots (please note that most hiking boots take several weeks to wear in. If you are planning on purchasing new boots, please do so well in advance to avoid blisters)
- Second pair of "comfy" shoes for around the campsite (could also be used for bike riding; no flip flops or bare feet aloud!)
- Extra pairs of thick wool hiking socks
- Plate, Cup, Bowl, Utensils (plastic or metal dishes)
- A small Bible in a zip-lock bag (lightweight size or a New Testament)
- Flashlight or Headlamp with extra batteries

- $15-$25 Cash (This is for if there is time to visit the gift shop/snack shop)

- Chapstick
- Effective whistle
- Journal & Pen
- Fishing gear (optional)
